

Pre-School Newsletter

As we are fast approaching the end of the academic year, we will no longer be doing a class topic. Instead, we will focus on moving forward for those children who are starting school. We still focus on phonics, math, mark making and handwriting skills and our Happy Minds Program. Therefore, no more homework will be sent home, but reading books will continue to be sent home. The sports day and graduation rehearsals are going well they seem to be having lots of fun.

Our word has more letters added they are, It, I, A, In, And, To, Was, Of, The. These words will be in the booklet we sent home in your backpack.

The letter of the week is 'W'. Can you create a collage with your child for us to share in class?

We are going to visit Reception class next week on the 17th of June to take part in their phonics lesson.

Don't forget our school photographer is coming to school on Friday the 14th of July to take the children's Graduation photographs. If your child is not in on that Friday, bring them to school from 10am to have theirs taken.

Also, please remember to wear something Red on Monday for National Diabetes week
